Negotiations were completed this morning whereby Homer Gilbert transfers his shoe repairing establishment in the basement of the Bolster block to Peter M. Depatie for a nominal consideration. Mr. Depatie took possession of the business this forenoon. The new owner is widely known in this city and for the past sixteen years he has had charge of the repairing in the shoe store now conducted by G. N. Tilden in the Wood block. Mr. Depatie represents a type of the more substantial shoemakers now rapidly passing away and his services have, therefore, been in constant demand during his term of employment in this city. He will remain at the Tilden store until November 15, when he will assume full charge of his newly acquired business. Mr. Gilbert's plans for the future are undecided.

The Home of Good Overcoats

When we speak of our good overcoats, we mean the kind that are of thoroughly dependable quality, of trustworthy materials, as well as those with style.

You must go farther than mere style, color, or pattern in your selection; for none of these things count after you have worn the garment a week or two, unless there is the quality of workmanship also. If all these points appeal to you we will be glad to serve you from the largest assortment of
